An elegant setting

From the moment you arrive outside this elegant eighteenth century building situated at the top of Richmond Hill and take in the magnificent Thames Valley view that has inspired poets and painters for centuries, the scene will be set for a wonderful day. As you and all your friends and loved ones assemble for those all important photographs, such a dramatic backdrop will ensure you're capturing special moments that will live as treasured memories for years to come.

Your choice of luxurious suites

As you make your entrance into one of Richmond Gate's four stylish reception suites, you'll delight at seeing your carefully selected style and colour scheme so impeccably presented.

Maybe you'll choose the magnificent

Conservatory which is a truly unique room overlooking the delightful Victorian walled garden ideal for drinks receptions and barbeques or the luxurious 'Gates on the Park' restaurant with its large bay windows; or perhaps you'll fall in love with the soft gold and green colour scheme that complements the crystal chandeliers in the Terrace Room so beautifully; or, if your wedding is a more intimate affair, you'll decide upon the exquisite first floor Morshead Room with its handsome long bay windows. Whatever your choice, the fairytale setting will be just as you imagined it.

Delicious food, sparkling ambience

Even in the excitement of the occasion, you'll find time to pause to appreciate the beautiful decorations and take in the sparkling atmosphere that has been so carefully created for you. You'll realise it has surpassed your expectations as you cherish every small detail.

The first meal of the rest of your life together, be it sit-down or buffet style, will have been prepared by the same kitchen that holds two coveted AA rosettes for its restaurant food, guaranteeing you fine English dining with a modern twist. And, as the magic continues with food and entertainment taking you into the night, it will seem as if the best day of your life will last forever.

...and the perfect ending<sup>o</sup>

At the end of such an exciting and unforgettable day, retiring to your elegantly furnished bedroom will be the perfect end to a perfect day. For those of your guests who have chosen to stay too, you'll be happy knowing that any one of the 68 beautiful bedrooms and suites available at Richmond Gate will be offering them a restful and convenient retreat, some also have the extra pleasure of four-poster beds. And, as the start of the next day heralds the beginning of your married life, you may treat yourself to the luxury of room service with breakfast in bed chosen from our varied menu.

Perfection takes a little planning

Just as you are unique, so should your special day be. Whatever your dream wedding comprises, our Wedding Planner will be there with you every step of the way, making those dreams into reality. Traditional, formal, modern, themed – or an extra celebration after a wedding abroad – our dedicated team will go out of their way to ensure everything runs as smoothly as it can, leaving you and your guests free to enjoy the day.

As we hold a civil service licence for three of our suites, you can even choose to say your vows at Richmond Gate, enabling you to spend the whole of your day in the one perfect location.

Making the magic last even longer

There's so much more to enjoy at Richmond Gate Hotel – book in a day early and re-vitalise mind, body and spirit in time for your big day with a luxurious Elemis treatment or alternative therapy at The Balcony Health and Beauty. Refresh yourselves in the huge indoor swimming pool, spa pool and gymnasium at the prestigious Cedars Health and Leisure Club before you leave for your honeymoon or stay on a little longer with your guests and take advantage of our convenient location, ideal for visiting the varied attractions of West London.
